

Skills Tanzania Bulletin

Issue 03, June 2022

Apprenticeship programmes

90 youth not in education, employment, or training participate in a modular apprenticeship programme in Zanzibar

Dar es Salaam. On 20 April 2022, the Government of Zanzibar launched the second phase of the modular apprenticeship programme in Zanzibar, targeting youth not in education, employment, or training (NEET).

Read more

105 youth graduated from short-term apprenticeship programme in the hospitality and tourism sector

Dar es Salaam. On 1 April 2022, the National College of Tourism (NCT) campus in Dar es Salaam celebrated the graduation of 105 apprentices from the modular apprenticeship programme, in the hospitality and tourism sector.

Read more

standard story

ILO joins the Institute of Accountancy Arusha for a mid-term evaluation of apprenticeship programmes

Dar es Salaam. On 24 March 2022, the International Labour Organisation (ILO) participated in a four-day workshop in Arusha to review the implementation of the new apprenticeship programmes in banking and finance, insurance and risk management, delivered by the Institute of Accountancy Arusha (IAA).

Read more

Skills anticipation

---

35 delegates from 5 African countries build their capacity on skills anticipation

Dar es Salaam. From 04 to 08 April 2022, 35 delegates from Zambia, Eswatini, Zimbabwe, Ghana, and The United Republic of Tanzania convened in Zanzibar to participate in a capacity building seminar on skills anticipation, under the Skills Initiative for Africa (SIFA) Programme.

Read more

Recognition of Prior Learning

---

ILO joins the Government of Tanzania to celebrate the graduation of 2,537 graduates from RPL programme

Dar es Salaam. January 15 2022, The International Labour Organization (ILO) joined the Government of Tanzania in celebrating the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) programme certification award ceremony. Read more

Global Programme on Skills and Lifelong Learning

Norad

Follow us

Sent to: daressalaam@ilo.org example@emailaddress.test

Unsubscribe | Privacy Policy

International Labour Organization
Dar es Salaam Counrty Office
Kazi House, Maktaba Street
Tanzania