

Table of contents

Acknowledgements
List of contributors
Table of international instruments
Table of domestic legislation
Table of cases
List of abbreviations

Introduction

1. Labour law and worker protection in the South: An evolving tension between models and reality (Tzehainesh Teklè)

PART I Worker access to labour law protection: Historical challenges and the impact of globalization

2. The effectiveness of labour law and decent work aspirations in the developing countries: A framework for analysis (Rachid Filali Meknassi)
3. Trade liberalization, labour law and development: A contextualization (Adelle Blackett)

PART II Labour law and worker protection in the South: Regional perspectives

4. Labour law in Latin America: The gap between norms and reality (Graciela Bensusán)
5. Labour law: A southern African perspective (Colin Fenwick, Evance Kalula and Ingrid Landau)
6. Labour law in South Asia: The need for an inclusive approach (Kamala Sankaran)

Bibliography
Index