

Mr Frank HARNISCHFEGER – Germany

- Current position: Chief Operating Officer, Forest Stewardship Council , Washington (USA) & Bonn (Germany)
 - Committee/Board engagement:
 - International Social and Environmental Accreditation and Labelling Alliance (ISEAL Alliance):
 - Member of the Board, May 2018 – present
 - Education and qualifications:
 - Non-Executive Director Postgraduate Diploma, Financial Times Management Education (London)
 - MBA, Institut Européen d'Administration des Affaires (INSEAD) (France)
 - Master, Psychology, University of Mannheim (Germany)
 - BA, Business Administration, Baden-Wuerttemberg Cooperative State University (DHBW) (Germany)
 - Experience Summary: Senior Operations Executive with public and private sector background and functional experience in finance, procurement, information technology and human resources.
 - Previous Positions:
 - 2006 – 2016 Director Technology & General Services, International Monetary Fund (IMF), Washington DC (USA)
 - 2004 – 2006: Chief Procurement Officer/Executive Vice-President, T-Systems, Frankfurt (Germany)
 - 2000 – 2004: Principal, A.T. Kearney, Washington. DC (USA)
 - 1997 – 2000: Partner/Managing Director, Plenum AG, Wiesbaden (Germany)
 - 1996 – 1997: Vice President Controlling & Finance, Raab Karcher Baustoffe, Frankfurt (Germany)
 - 1993 – 1996: Director Finance & Commercial Sales, ABB Group, Mannheim (Germany)
 - 1991 – 1993: Consultant Corporate Projects, Siemens Group, Munich (Germany)
 - 1984 – 1987: Trainee, Siemens Group, Munich (Germany)
 - Other experience:
 - 2006 – 2016: High Level Committee on Management, United Nations
-