

You are cordially invited to the third RDW conference
Regulating for Decent Work
Regulating for Equitable and Job-Rich Growth
(3-5 July 2013, ILO, Geneva)

Day 1 (3 July 2013), Wednesday
08.00-09.00	Registration
09.00-09.30	Opening ceremony					Room IX
09.30-11.00	Plenary I Ha-Joon Chang (U. Cambridge) David Kucera (ILO)	Political economy of equitable development Laziness, entrepreneurship, and jobs: Why do we need collective productive capabilities if we want decent work and economic development, trade union rights and democracy: When FDI meets Intentional Labour Standards				Room IX
11.00-11.30	Break
11.30-13.00	Parallel session 1	Room III 1.1 Labour law at the firm-level	Room IV 2.1 Innovations in enforcement and inspection	Room VI 3.1 The economic crisis and its impacts on employment and labour relations	Room VII 4.1 Women's employment and gender segregation	Room IX 5.1 Symposium: Governance to promote decent work in global value chains (I)
13.00-14.00	Lunch break (Book launch) A. Rossi, A. Luinstra, & J. Pickles, eds. Toward Better Work: Understanding Labour in Apparel Global Value					R2 lounge
14.00-15.30	Parallel session 2	1.2 Decent work: New approaches, new measurements	2.2 Assessing and conceptualising informality	3.2 Economic developments and employment growth	4.2 Segmentation and informal economy	5.2 Symposium: Governance to promote decent work in global value chains (II)
15.30-16.00	Break
16.00-17.30	Parallel session 3	1.3 Symposium: Regulatory dilemma in SMEs? -- concept, theory and evidence	2.3 From the ground up: Empirical assessments of street vending and other informal work	3.3 Gender equality: China and India	4.3 Problems in promoting diversity and dignity at work	[No planned session]
17.30-19.00	Welcome reception, hosted by the ILO					R2 lounge
Day 2 (4 July 2013), Thursday
08.00-09.00	Registration
09.00-10.30	Plenary II Zhiyuan Cui (Tsinghua U., Kamala Sankaran (Delhi U.))	Evaluating recent economic developments: Lessons from China and India Combining decency with flexibility: James Meade's "liberal socialism" Addressing the Decent Work Deficit in informal employment: The role of labour law				Room IX
10.30-11.00	Break
11.00-12.30	Parallel session 4	Room III 1.4 Comparing labour regulation systems: New evidence	Room IV 2.4 Symposium: Health inequalities, work and access to social security of informal workers	Room VI 3.4 Evolution of industrial relations and labour market institutions	Room VII 4.4 Symposium: Inequality -- causes, effects, responses	[No planned session]
12.30-13.30	Lunch (Book launch) C. Fagan, M. Gonzales Menendez & S. Gomez Anson, eds. Women on Corporate Boards and in Top Management					Room IX
13.30-15.00	Parallel session 5	1.5 Newly emerging issues	2.5 Innovations in regulation of domestic work	3.5 Symposium: Public sector pay and procurement	4.5 Immigrant workers	5.5 Challenges for the creation of inclusive and fair labour markets?
15.00-15.30	Break
15.30-17.00	Parallel session 6	1.6 Symposium: The evolution of labour law in the Asia-Pacific region -- Methodological and comparative perspectives	2.6 Trends in informality: Contrasting developments	3.6 The role of trade unions and collective bargaining	4.6 Promoting fairness at work	[No planned session]
17.00-18.30	Plenary III Ingrid Woolard (Cape Town U.) Jill Rubery (U. Manchester)	An inclusive labour market: Debates and policy experiences Institutional wage-setting in the context of high inequality and unemployment: The case of South Africa Beyond the outsider/insider divide: Regulating for inclusive labour markets				Room IX
19.00-21.00	Conference reception, hosted by U. Manchester & U. Duisburg-Essen					R2 (North), Restaurant
Day 3 (5 July 2013), Friday
08.00-09.00	Registration
09.00-10.30	Parallel session 7	Room III 1.7 Workshop: Labour law vs. immigration law	Room IV 2.7 Regulation and informality: Country experiences and outlook	Room VI 3.7 Multinational enterprises and social dialogue	Room VII 4.7 Quality of the workplace	Room IX 5.7 Growth in non-standard and low wage employment
10.30-11.00	Break
11.00-12.30	Parallel session 8	3.8a Inequality, growth, and labour market institutions: How much can they help?	2.8 New policy strategies for informal workers: The case of home workers	3.8b Wage setting regimes and wage measurement	4.8 Segmentation in and after the great recession	5.8 Symposium: How do economic crises polarize the labour market? - The case of Korea
12.30-14.00	Lunch (Special lecture) Nelson Barbosa (Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; former deputy minister, Ministry of Finance) Macroeconomic policy for growth and employment					Room IX
14.00-15.30	Parallel session 9	1.9 Labour law at the frontline: Emerging or under siege?	2.9 State and non-state regulation for social protection	3.9 Working conditions and well-being of workers	4.9 Symposium: Trade union organization of vulnerable workers	5.9 Symposium: Informality and inequality dynamics in Latin America in the new millennium: Characteristics and associated factors
15.30-16.00	Break
16.00-17.30	Plenary IV	Panel discussion: What future for industrial relations? Richard Hyman (LSE) Edward Webster (U. Witwatersrand) Maarten Keune (AIAS) Ratna Sen (Retired professor, IISWBM, Calcutta U.)				Room IX
17.30-18.00	Closing ceremony					Room IX

Cohosted by

The International Labour Office (ILO)'s Conditions of Work and Equality Department (WORKQUALITY)

The University of Amsterdam's Institute for Advanced Labour Studies (AIAS)

The University of Melbourne's Centre for Employment and Labour Relations Law (CELRL)

The University of Manchester's Fairness at Work Research Centre (FairWRC)

The University of Duisburg-Essen's Institut Arbeit und Qualifikation (IAQ)

For registration or information, please contact rdw@ilo.org or visit our website: www.ilo.org/travail